BURGUNDY

BOTTLE

- Bourgogne-Aligoté, Domaine Sorin-Coquard €65
Chablis, France 2024
From a long-standing family domaine, this Aligoté is crisp and refreshing, showing citrus and green apple in Burgundy's lighter, everyday white style.
- Chablis, Domaine Laurence Race €75
Chablis, France 2022/23
Fourth-generation family estate now led by Claire Race; Chardonnay grown on Kimmeridgian fossil-rich soils gives that crisp, flinty Chablis snap, made cleanly with no oak.
- Bourgogne-Chardonnay, Domaine Jacqueson €85
Cote d'Or, France 2023
From the Côte Chalonnaise, Jacqueson makes a bright and approachable Chardonnay with citrus fruit and a clean, rounded finish.
- Mercurey Blanc, Château de Chamirey €100
Côte Chalonnaise, France 2022
Château de Chamirey produces a white Mercurey that is fuller than many regional Bourgognes, with ripe Chardonnay fruit and a rounded, generous style.
- Meursault, Domaine Ballot-Millot €170
Cote d'Or, France 2023
Unlike the finer, citrus-driven style of Puligny or the broader weight of Chassagne, Meursault is known for its rich, rounded Chardonnay with buttery texture and nutty depth. Ballot-Millot is a benchmark producer of this style.
- Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru "Les Embrazées", Domaine T. Morey €185
Cote d'Or, France 2022
Chassagne sits between Puligny's finesse and Meursault's richness, the Premier Cru Les Embrazées shows that balance with ripe fruit, weight and a long, structured finish.
- Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru "La Truffière", Domaine T. Morey €230
Cote d'Or, France 2023
La Truffière is a high-slope Premier Cru in Puligny, giving Chardonnay of great precision and elegance, lighter and more chiselled than the richer styles of nearby Meursault or Chassagne.
